MONDAY, AUGUST 23

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

LOCAL BRIEVES.

FROM F. W. Heimick & Co., a beautiful song of "Heaven Bless Mamma."

The March Chariot, now used in this city, has found favor in Washington, and will soon be adopted.

The Finance Committee has taken no action yet on the Cincinnati Hospital report made to Council.

At each of the Station-houses yesterday a dead horse was reported, a thing that has not happened since the epidemic.

The Third and Fourth street cars connected with the Adamsville line at Mill creek bridge, to which point they now run.

PROF. SEIDENSTICKER has gone East to secure talent for chamber concerts in opposition to Brand and Ballenberg next season.

SEVENTEEN car loads of fresh peaches arrived to-day from Baltimore, all in first-class order. They are selling at $1 to $1.75 per basket.

MRS. MILLER, residing at 544 Race street, was bitten pretty severely by a dog yesterday afternoon. The dog was shot by Lieutenant Ridgeway.

A ROAN HORSE with one white front leg, was stolen about six o'clock this morning from Mrs. Well's stable, on Barnet avenue. No arrest.

A lot of wearing apparel was stolen last Saturday, about noon, from Henry Egan, at Working's grocery, corner of Front street and Central avenue.

CUMBER'S BAND, consisting of fifteen musicians, has been engaged for the County Fair, at Cincinnati, Kentucky, which takes place next week.

The raffle for the splendid cake for officer McAnn, wounded at the Fourth street fire, takes place this evening. The drawing is to be held at 7:30 precisely.

The Mississippi editors left the Grand Hotel yesterday, en route to their homes. They express themselves as highly delighted with their trip and the treatment accorded them everywhere.

ADAM BEUTZ, residing at 13 Bank street, was bitten by his own dog, a large Newfoundland, at six o'clock this morning. His right arm was badly lacerated. Officers Quard and Knapp shot the dog.

OWING to the immense crowds that attend Gulick's Grand Central Variety Theater last week, the proprietor has been forced to enlarge the seating capacity of his house, making an addition of 500 seats.

FRANK HANF, the genial proprietor of the Lookout House, reports the largest attendance yesterday ever known at that popular resort. There were fully ten thousand people on his grounds during the day.

HORSES attached to a milk wagon ran away on Clark street, emptying the milk cans and a basket of honey. The horses kept on running down the street and narrowly missed wrecking a buggy which they met.

MEETING of the Exposition Committee on Monday, at the Board of Trade rooms, at four o'clock this afternoon, to discuss the plans and propositions of Messrs. G. W. Jones and Adag, the special committee.

A KENTUCKIAN named Blynn was assaulted Saturday night on Front street, near the bridge, by footpads, who, after knocking him down, robbed him of $16. Blynn was found by private watchman Hains, lying senseless, with three ugly scalp wounds. No arrest.

The first grand picnic of the Irish Centennial Guards, which was to have been held on the 18th, but was postponed on account of the heavy rains, will come off to-morrow at the East End Garden. A pleasant time is anticipated.

EDWARD BLACKBURN, a butcher, while going to market this morning, at three o'clock, with his wagon, was thrown out by a wheel coming off at the corner of Poplar and Central avenue, and had his leg broken. He was taken to his residence on Bank street.

DR. WM. M. HUNTER, the dentist, last evening while in the act of getting on a street car to return to the city from Walnut Hills, was run over by a horse and buggy, and had his left leg broken below the knee. He was taken to the Cincinnati Hospital.

The Adams Express Company presented Mr. Burke, the messenger on the Vandallia railway who defended himself and the property of the company so bravely the night of the Ames murder, with a thousand dollars in gold, a few days since, as a reward for his bravery.

CORONER MALEY was yesterday evening notified of an unknown man being run over by a freight train on the O. & N. E. R. near Anderson's ferry, and instantly killed. The man had $7.85 in money with him. On account of the absence of witnesses, the inquest was postponed until to-morrow morning.

The brake of a Covington street car gave way on Vine street, between Third and Fourth, and the car made a rapid descent to the flats below. Several of the passengers who took fright and sought safety by jumping into the street were seriously bruised, and were conveyed to neighboring drug stores for repairs.

An alarm of fire was turned in from box 54 Saturday night, on account of a fire in a lighted & Porter's planing mill, on the L. C. & L. R. R. north of Fifth street. The fire originated in the cellar of Milton H. Cooper's box factory. It was extinguished with but slight difficulty. The loss was about $300. Fully insured.

NICK MORAN and his brother Thomas, the two murderers of Wm. Moran, were arraigned in the Police Court this morning on a charge of murder in the second degree. Both waived a preliminary examination and were bound over to the Grand Jury. Their bail was fixed at $5,000 each.

FRANK BRINKENDORF, a young man in the employ of Herman Gilsey, a cigar manufacturer, on Front street, between Walnut and Vine, departed for parts unknown, the other evening, taking, it is alleged, about $350 of his employer's money. A description of the young man was telegraphed to various points, but nothing has been heard of him as yet.

CORONER MALEY held an inquest yesterday on the body of John Parker, who was found dead in Doderworth lane, at Winton Place, about 10 o'clock, and the jury returned a verdict of death from intemperance and exposure. The deceased resided in Hamilton, and had been on the spree. He was found lying on the track near the C. & E. Railroad freight house.

House as soon as all necessary arrangements can be made.

ABOUT half-past nine or ten o'clock last night Mr. N. Carningmore, Treasurer of the Amazon Insurance Company, was seriously injured while attempting to jump from one of the Covington cars on Vine street. The car being in rapid motion, he slipped and fell, striking his head against the side of the car. He was picked up insensible. Drs. Whitaker and Conners are attending to his injuries, which are very serious.

A STAR reporter walked up to the Exposition the other day to see what was going on, you know. Mr. Pendleton, the Chairman and Manager of the Horticultural Department, kindly consented to smite the rocks and cause the miniature fountains to pour down their liquid treasures, silver, presenting one of the most beautiful spectacles that one would wish to see, showing to what a degree of excellence Mr. Pendleton has carried the mechanical portion of this department, which is to be one of the grand features of the Exposition of 1876.

MATTIE ANDERSON, the young woman who belabored the hotel clerk at the St. James with her umbrella on Saturday night, was arraigned in the Police Court this morning, but, by the skillful pleadings of her attorney, and on account of the smallness of the fine, was dismissed. Mattie, nevertheless, was required to pay the costs, but that entrance was not made on the docket. It is thought that the clerk was so afraid to be present in Court, as he dreaded a "rubbing" in the Patrol, of which Mattie is alleged to be one of the principal contributors. Mattie, according to some, also claims to be the author of "The Beautiful Snow."

The Executive Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations held a meeting yesterday at the Mount-street Temple, President M. Loth in the chair.

The bond of the Treasurer, for $20,000, and that of the Secretary, for $5,000, was approved. Orders for bills amounting to $250.61 were ordered to be drawn.

The President was authorized to buy five hundred copies of Leezer's English Bible, and to resell them at $1 a copy to those intending to sell them again at a profit.

Mr. Kramer, Secretary of the Board of Governors, officially reported that the Hebrew Union College would be opened during the first week in October in the Mount-street Temple building, and that twelve applications for admission had been received.

The President was then presented with the following artistically engraved resolutions:

"Resolved, That the thanks of this Union are sincerely tendered to Moritz Loth, Esq., President of the First Council and of the Executive Board, for his untiring zeal and generous and disinterested services in the cause of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and for the fearless and important manner in which he has so nobly discharged the duties of his office."

"Resolved, That the foregoing be entered upon the minutes of the Council and a copy thereof be engrossed and presented to Moritz Loth, Esq."

"JOSIAH COHEN, President."
"LIPMAN LEVY, Secretary."

The recipient responded in a very feeling and eloquent manner. The meeting then adjourned.

Political Clubs.
A Hayes Club was formed in the Twenty-fifth ward Saturday evening, with the following officers: President, J. E. Heart; Vice President, George Scheffel; Secretary, Chas. Evans; Treasurer, A. Stiefel; Finance Committee, Joseph Lingo, W. W. Wiskel, J. C. Bruckman, and Knottzner, F. Danert.
